

Upcoming projects...

At Bispham CastAways we have a rolling three year plan, which we are constantly updating and editing to meet our aspirations.

Some of our upcoming plans include:

- Performing in the 2019 Lytham One-Act Festival in September at Lowther Pavilion
- Community Pantomime event in December 2019
- The coordination of a one act play festival at Bispham CastAways focusing on mental health issues in 2020
- A dual heritage and theatre project in 2021 which will focus on a lost Lancashire outdoor traditional performance art - Pace Egging

- Free outreach performances in public places, retirement homes and community hubs
- Also look out for the CastAways at Blackpool Pride and Bispham Gala

Next thing CastAways to look out for in September 2019...
